

You can not hide from the truth

FEAR reflects on what he has become. Is that what I really am? Am I who America really wants?

Voices from Two Different Stories:

FEAR (STRATCOM) looks into the mirror. FEAR doesn't want to, but his highest nature compels him to take a look. FEAR sees the reflection of his inner thoughts in the mirror. Who is he? What has he become?

HOPE: I will hold the magic mirror in front of FEAR. I want him to see who he really is and what he has become while giving him opportunity to change . . . to develop humane, caring thoughts and policies. I will appeal to the best that is in him — and to the workers at StratCom that know not what they are doing. If StratCom continues with its plans, the human species will probably not live until the end of this century. Our children will not die a natural death — it's that serious.

Comments: ■ The first deployment of weapons in space is likely to set off a trillion dollar arms race, risk littering orbital space with enough debris to make it unusable for any civilian purpose, and possibly trigger a nuclear war. — Helen Caldecott and Craig Eisendrath, WAR IN HEAVEN: THE ARMS RACE IN OUTER SPACE.
■ There are currently 18,400 objects orbiting in space.— Air Force Space Command. ■ A key reason for America's desire to kill the UN's space weapons ban treaty negotiations is that the military-industrial complex views space as a new market. — Bruce Gagnon, Coordinator of Global Network.